Fighting Herons Weekly Recap

Week 12

#9 SAN MARCOS FIGHTING HERONS 17 at #5 OREGON DUCKS 24

SAN MARCOS, Texas - The Herons fell in their last nonconference game of the season to the #5 Oregon Ducks 24-17.

Turnovers killed the Herons in this matchup. The team had a total of six turnovers and could never get the momentum they needed on offense.

Heading into halftime San Marcos was tied with Oregon 7-7 and only managed to score late in the second half.

In the final two quarters, the Oregon Ducks took the lead and the Herons could not get out of their own way. Despite multiple comeback attempts, the Herons could not find a way to lead in the later parts of the game.

Quarterback Stephen Bandy was held to 322 yards in the air and just two passing touchdowns.

UP NEXT
San Marcos heads to Dallas, Texas for the Big 12 Championship game in its first year in the conference. The Herons will face the No. 3-ranked Oklahoma State Cowboys.
