Fighting Herons Weekly Recap

Week 2

SAN MARCOS FIGHTING HERONS 42 vs Texas State Bobcats 21

SAN MARCOS, Texas - The Fighting Herons won their first game of the season and their first home game of the season on Saturday with a 42-21 win over inner-city rival Texas State.

The Fighting Herons held the Bobcats scoreless in the first quarter and found themselves with a 21-7 lead going into halftime.

The Fighting Herons kept their foot on the gas and once again held the Bobcats to zero points in the third quarter.

Both the Bobcats and the Fighting Herons scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, which allowed the Fighting Herons to win their first game of the season 42-21 over the Bobcats.

In the first matchup of the Battle for San Marcos, your Fighting Herons won!

UP NEXT
The Fighting Herons are back in action next week when they head to Ames, Iowa, to face the Iowa State Cyclones, who are the 24th ranked team in the NCAA. This will also mark the first Big 12 game for the Fighting Herons.

Follow the Fighting Herons on Social Media @SMHeronsFootball