Fighting Herons Weekly Recap

Week 3

SAN MARCOS FIGHTING HERONS 38 at #24 Iowa State Cyclones 13

SAN MARCOS, Texas - The San Marcos Fighting Herons won their first Big 12 game and first game versus a ranked opponent in program history.

The Fighting Herons got out to a dominating lead and never looked back. They led 35-3 going into halftime and didn't allow a touchdown either.

The Fighting Herons slowed down in the next two quarters of football and were only able to manage a field goal in the fourth quarter.

Despite the slowdown in scoring, the Herons only allowed the Cyclones to score 10 points and were able to win the game 38-13.

Quarterback Tyreek Robinson Jr. had a great day, throwing for 216 yards and three touchdowns. Two of his three touchdowns were caught by sophomore wideout Corey Goode.

UP NEXT
The Fighting Herons will face another Big 12 opponent when they return to San Marcos to take on the #12 ranked Kansas State Wildcats.

Follow the Fighting Herons on Social Media @SMHeronsFootball