Fighting Herons Weekly Recap

Week 7

SAN MARCOS FIGHTING HERONS 42 vs HOUSTON COUGARS 10

SAN MARCOS, Texas - Despite a total of five turnovers, the Herons were able to score 42 points and stay perfect in Big 12 play against the Houston Cougars.

The Herons got off to very slow start and only scored 14 points by the halfway mark of the game, while the Cougars scored 10.

The game changed in the third quarter for the Herons, when they managed to put up 28 points in the third quarter.

Despite finding success in the third quarter, the Herons were held to zero points in the fourth quarter, but were able to hold the Cougars to zero points as well in both the third and fourth quarters.

Quarterback Tyreek Robinson Jr. threw for 453 yards and had six touchdowns in the air against the Cougars. Robinson Jr. continued to put the ball in the air despite having four interceptions, which was his most in a game this season

UP NEXT
The Herons will continue Big 12 play next week in a ranked game against the #12 Kansas Jayhawks.

Follow the Fighting Herons on Social Media @SMHeronsFootball