Fighting Herons Weekly Recap

Week 9

#16 SAN MARCOS FIGHTING HERONS 20 VS WEST VIRGINIA 11

SAN MARCOS, Texas - In a low-scoring game for both teams, the San Marcos Fighting Herons were able to pull out a victory over the West Virginia Mountaineers 20-11.

The Herons managed one touchdown in each of the first two quarters of the game and held West Virginia to just one field goal going into halftime.

The Herons fell flat in the last two quarters of the game and were only able to manage two field goals in the third and fourth quarters.

The Fighting Herons' defense was the star of the game and held the Mountaineers scoreless in two of the four quarters.

Quarterback Tyreek Robinson Jr. had only 218 passing yards and just two passing touchdowns in the win.

UP NEXT
The Fighting Herons will travel to Lubbock, Texas to face the Texas Tech Red Raiders in their second-to-last Big 12 game of the season. The Herons will be ranked #15 going into the game, which is their best ranking of the season so far.

Follow the Fighting Herons on Social Media @SMHeronsFootball